$60,000 FIRE RAGES THROUGH PAHOKEE COLORED TOWN; TWO FD'S QUELL BLAZE

Red Cross In To Give Aid

PAHOKEE — A structural loss estimated at $60,000 resulted from the fire in colored town Saturday night which destroyed three buildings, damaged two others, and made upwards of 200 Negroes homeless.

Wiley Tillis, Pahokee builder and owner of one of the apartment buildings lost, estimated that damage to a 2 1/2-story building not destroyed ran around $10,000; to Shiloh Baptist parsonage, $4,000, and that the three totally destroyed buildings owned by himself, R. O. Crosby and the Caldwell estate amounted to some $45,000 including store stocks and room contents.

First alarm on the fire came to Fire Chief Martin Levins at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, and the first truck was on the scene less than 10 minutes later.

A cog on the truck pump sheared, but quick thinking on the part of Chief Levins, who jammed the truck into low gear to break the obstruction loose, overcame the difficulty.

On Pahokee's official call at 7:50 p.m., the 500-gallon pump-unit of the Belle Glade fire department rushed to the scene and were operating by 8:10 (See story elsewhere on this page.) Meantime, the second Pahokee truck was at the scene, and volunteer firemen were aided in fighting the flames by other local men and Negro residents of the affected area.

A southeast wind fanned the blaze which affected an entire block in the center of colored town. Residents of that and the surrounding area fled the scene carrying mattresses, suitcases, loose clothing—whatever they could pick up as they rushed from their rooms.

Local residents and their cars jammed the scene and the arrival of the Belle Glade unit.

Pahokee—Canal Point Red Cross Disaster Chairman Frank Rozelle went into action immediately to find shelter and assistance for the fire victims. Mayor Lewis Friend and School Board Member Thurmond Knight assisted Rozelle, and East Lake school was turned into a temporary shelter. E. L. T. Smith, chairman of the Palm Beach County Red Cross disaster committee, family service department and a group of social workers joined the local men to help the victims.

The combined efforts of the two towns' fire departments prevented the fire from jumping Rardin Ave. or reaching the businesses stretching along Belle Glade Rd.

Pahokee Mayor Lewis Friend said "I congratulate the fire department for a job well done. I have heard no criticism that there was a delay. I have checked with both fire department and water department logs and the criticism is unfounded."

This week the mayor wrote a letter of thanks in behalf of this community to the City of Belle Glade, for its assistance in fighting the fire.

Volunteer firemen who worked on the fire were Bob Phillips, Shackford, Paul Collier, Jack Phillips, Charles Brown, Dave Cunningham, John McKinstry, Elmer Elsworth, Keen, Leo Maxwell, and R. D. Sappington.

Letters of appreciation came from the pulpit Sunday for clothes for fire victims. Collins Furniture Store by mid-week was loaded with clothing which came in response to the pleas.

SATISFACTION EXPRESSED ON BG FIREMEN'S WORK BY CHIEF

BELLE GLADE — Fire Chief L. E. Wills expressed satisfaction this week at the performance of the truck and volunteers of the fire department who rushed to the assistance of Pahokee firemen fighting the blaze in that city's colored town Saturday.

At the regular Monday-night departmental drill, the Pahokee fire was mapped on the blackboard and, as after every fire, a review took place.

Belle Glade firemen at the scene Saturday night fought back the danger of flames spreading across a street north, and helped save the Caldwell corner building and abutting church parsonage from total destruction.

Chief Wills said an unidentified Negro's call at 7:45 p.m. originally alerted the Belle Glade department, which called in volunteers and stood by for a second call. The chief said the request for aid came through a short time later.

The Pahokee call left Chief Wills and one paid man on duty in Belle Glade. Other volunteers were alerted and another truck was on standby to come in case of a second call. The chief said his department was glad to be of help, just as the Pahokee department has come to Belle Glade's aid in the case of the colored town fire a few years ago.

Chief Wills said that his only suggestion was that closer liaison could have been maintained between the two departments, for direction to hydrants and spotting positions. He noted that Pahokee Councilman George H. Tucker, jr., who was on the scene although not a volunteer fireman, had been especially helpful to the Belle Glade department in directing them and manning the hoses.

In the Belle Glade company fighting the fire were Capt. Charles "Bozo" Greer, George Beardon, Leon Webster, and Volunteers Cloyd Fessenden, James Ellis, Don Laster, Joe Hester, and James Resser.

EXP. STATION VERY VISITED

BELLE GLADE — Wilfred W. Bryan, senior agronomist with the plant and soils laboratory in Brisbane, Australia, who is in this country for six months, was a visitor at the Everglades Experiment Station Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The purpose of Bryan's tour is to become familiar with pasture research in other sub-tropical and tropical regions and to collect seed material of various legumes. He was in Belle Glade to see and discuss pasture research on Everglades soils and palmetto land.

In Australia, he has, for the last five years, been in charge of work developing pastures on a coastal land area. On his current tour, he has visited Louisiana, Mexico, Cuba, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Costa Rica, and Florida, and before leaving the country, will also visit in Georgia and in South Carolina.

Erwin Brooks, plant breeder from the International Corporation Administration, and Manuel Curbello and Carlos Puen, both agronomists from Cuba spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the station where they discussed cattle feeding and breeding, corn breeding, and the local pasture program, including interplanting, silage production, and self-feeding of silage from field bunkers. The Cuban agronomists are on a tour of the Gulf Coast states in cooperation between the International Corporation Administration and the commission of agricultural research, Cuba Ministry of Agriculture.

Last week, the Virginia Polytechnic Institute group of 30 students, visited at the Everglades Experiment Station. They were on a tour studying southern agricultural problems and research, during their spring school recess. At the local experiment station, they were shown work of interest to them by Dr. Jules Winfree, Dr. Victor E. Cline, and Dr. R. I. Almen, jr., R. W. Kidder, and D. W. Beardsley.

PAHOKEE — George Johnson, who was "relief man" for the city police, fire and water departments for about five years, qualified Tuesday as a candidate for Pahokee chief of police in the upcoming city election.

A 43-year-old native of Mississippi, he and Mrs. Johnson came to Pahokee in 1940. They maintain a residence on SE Cypress Ave. although they have lived temporarily at quarters near Glades Livestock Market where Johnson is employed.

The Johnsons are members of the First Baptist Church in Pahokee and are the parents of two children, George, jr., 19 and Fay, 11. Mrs. Johnson formerly worked in several retail clothing stores in Pahokee.

$59,000 UP IN 3-MO. BUILDING

BELLE GLADE — An increase of $59,092 in building permits, the first quarter of 1956 over 1955, was reported this week by Building Inspector W. L. Cunningham, sr.

Totalling $292,827, the value of permits issued for the first three months of this year was considerably boosted by March issuance of 10 new homes permits totalling $100,590, Cunningham said.

In that category, major items were a $20,000 permit valuation to Mrs. Ruth S. Wedgworth for a new home at 200 NW Ave. E. A second $20,000 issuance was to Harvey Poole, for construction at 1233-41 SW Ave. C. Pl. Among business building permits issued were for $18,000 to Dr. R. V. Creech, jr., for an office at 301 SE First St. Dr. W. O. Norville was issued a $25,000 rooming house permit.

RED CROSS HELPS

Disaster relief amounting to $5,772.24 was expended by Palm Beach County Chapter of the American Red Cross to 51 families representing 152 persons, after Saturday night's fire in Pahokee colored town. County Red Cross Disaster Representative E. L. T. Smith reported that all assistance given was in the form of outright grants.

Fire victims were given disbursement orders to local merchants for two changes of work clothing for men and women, two changes of baby or school children's clothing for youngsters, and for bedding, mattresses, and kitchen utensils.

Smith, who was in charge of administration of the Red Cross assistance, paid tribute to Frank Rozelle, local disaster chairman, for his untiring efforts following the fire. Working with Smith in Pahokee from the county chapter were Miss Carolyn Y. Blitch, director of home service, Mrs. Helen Hartley and Mrs. Jean Allimore, social workers, and Melvin Livingston, executive director of the chapter.

The Pahokee—Canal Point Red Cross fund campaign has been extended to April 15 in an effort to reach the quota of $2,000, or less than half the amount expended in assistance after the fire, according to General Chairman Dorothy Graham. Persons wishing to contribute directly to the disaster fund may make out checks to "American Red Cross Fire Disaster."

CURRENTLY .....

The fire in Pahokee's colored town Saturday night pointed up the need for a better understood and trained fire department for the Pahokee - Canal Point area. Chief Marvin Levins and his volunteers were on the spot with the first truck less than 10 minutes after the alarm was sounded and went to work fearlessly and effectively. Had they been outfitted and drilled to the extent displayed by the Belle Glade unit which arrived later, Pahokians could have felt considerably less concerned watching their willing volunteers at work in rolling flames and collapsing buildings.

— JR —

We note that the Boston watch-and-warders have cranked up a campaign against rock-and-roll music. Seems odd that they don't know that such a fight is like trying to cut sawgrass with a paring knife. The proper Bostonians might as well sit back and rock and roll with this latest in musical horrors. It'll all blast over.

— JR —

We are glad that so many churches were so packed to overflowing with Easter worshippers. We join the ministers who would be even happier to see the same count next Sunday—and the Sundays after that.

SAY IT ISN'T SO: Rumor had it that Congressman Bob Sikes was getting out of the Stevenson campaign after the defeat in Minnesota. One national radio commentator even predicted it.

But here is what the Florida "he-coon" himself had to say about it. "Florida is now the most important state in the nation as far as the election of a Democrat in November is concerned. Governor Stevenson has had a couple of bad immings, but I never knew a ball game to be over in the second inning. Governor Stevenson realizes that he must come out fighting and that is what he intends to do."

DOES THIS MEAN YOU? There's $41,000,000 in Washington waiting to be claimed by people scattered all over the United States. The Foreign Claims Settlement Commission is trying to find out who have a right to this money.

So if you have a war claim against Bulgaria, Hungary, or Rumania or Italy, you'd better get your claim in now because the final date for filing is Sept. 30, 1956. This money is being made available by the four countries to take care of old war claims against them. If you think they owe you anything, write to the Foreign Claims Commission, Tariff Commission Building, 7th and E Sts., Washington.

SPEED UP THAT PAY: Thanks to Congressman C. A. Bennett, members of the Coast Guard reserve will get paid on time. Complaint has long been that reservists in the Coast Guard sometimes waited a month or two for their pay when their active duty was over and as much as five or six months for their dependents' allowances.

Bennett went to work on the problem and now has been asked by the Coast Guard that a change has been made in pay procedures. From now on, according to Bennett, the Coast Guard will pay reservists on the day their active duty has been completed.

A tank car full of Glades molasses, mixed with nice yellow sulphur from one of our chemical companies . . .
 Enough sulphur and molasses to give every Congressman a spring dose?

I hope how I hope so. Overcome with perturbation as I am, and there's nothing worse than that except maybe tick bites, I am at my wit's end what to do with the second session of the 84th Congress.

It was one morning this week that I was perusing a daily (except the expression) newspaper, lazily, and brushing crumbs of my kibble-and-cottage-cheese breakfast from the pages.
 There was an item about two Congressmen in altercation over whether a new opera house was needed in the nation's capital.

Freshman Congressman Frank Thompson, of New Jersey, who thinks the district should have a new opera house, was berated by Veteran Congressman Mike Kirwan, of Ohio.

Poor Thompson noted that of all the public halls in the city, none was suitable for ballet or opera.

Drew Pearson reports that Kirwan said "There is nothing wrong with that. You have to chloroform people to get 500 to look at a ballet. Don't let anybody kid you on that score. It takes a lot of good courage to sit and watch somebody go into a toe dance."

Kirwan even drew the late and revered jurist Oliver Wendell Holmes into his argument. Holmes was a great man for burlesque, and so, said Kirwan, is he.

Well now, aside from Mr. Kirwan being obviously unlettered in the ballet (if he'd ever seen the Ballet de Paris interpret "passion," he'd never bother with burlesque again), I can't see why he got so downright irate at his colleague. He said simply see, my new friend in Congress, we don't have the

Why did he have to drag poor deceased Justice Holmes in — and how does he know that chloroform might make 1,000 people look at ballet instead of a mere 500?
 It's only April, and Congress has been fiddling around while voters burned.

And tempers seem to be running short way before adjournment deadline.

Maybe the sulphur and molasses would help.

It's worth a try, isn't it?

Memo From The Editor:

"The Man In The Iron Lung", released yesterday by Doubleday & Company, Inc., is the story of the late Frederick B. Snite, Jr.'s 18 years of life encased in an open-end coffin.

Snite, whose fame as a "pollo" was second only to that of Franklin D. Roosevelt, was a regular winter resident of Miami Beach, and his iron lung was a familiar sight at the race track, at bridge tournaments, and at local clubs.

Death came to him in West Palm Beach, on Nov. 13, 1954, from physical deterioration brought on by nearly two decades of life in the iron lung.

Snite's biographer is Leonard C. Hawkins, who joined the Snite family originally as a chauffeur, in 1930, and eventually became a young Snite's companion and close friend. Hawkins' story is told by Milton Lomask.

No masterpiece of writing, the book nevertheless gives a clear portrait of the life of a man who, struck down by polio at the age of 25, might well have let himself become an embittered, useless victim of the tragedy.

Instead, young Fred Snite married a girl he had known in his days as a happy-go-lucky student at Notre Dame. He and Mrs. Snite were the parents of three daughters, in whose upbringing their father was a strict and interested participant. Snite at all times went out of his way to bring solace and cheer to other "polios."

He joked about his own condition, and many are the anecdotes Hawkins tells — such as the time on a downtown street when a group of boys, viewing Snite in his iron lung inside his travel bus, fell to fighting. "What's the argument, boys?" asked the man in the iron lung. A husky lad replied from an abashed group: "It's a bet. Some of the fellows say you got two heads."

"And how are you betting?"

GLADES JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER

The ladies' auxiliary wishes to notify members of the forthcoming rummage sale. Anyone having rummage is asked to turn the rummage over to Kathryn Golden or Vivian Weiser, co-chairladies. The sale is to be held Apr. 16 so there is not much time to get the rummage in.

A membership card party for both the men and the ladies will be held at the temple on Apr. 22. Molly Pearlman and Shirley Lehrer, as co-chairmen, ask that all members attend and be sure to bring their own card tables and chairs.

A standing ovation was extended to Al Mutch for his untiring efforts in the construction of our temple. To quote "If it were not for Al, there would be no temple." Mr. and Mrs. Schulwolf, of Miami, donated a wonderful reading stand in memory of Mrs. Schulwolf's brother.

Anyone unable to deliver the rummage is asked to call WY 6-2425, WY 6-3468, or WY 6-3482 for pickup service.

Electrical Load? What's That .... It's Basic to Figuring Your Wiring Needs

FARM BOYS—take their wiring seriously and learn about it early.

By IRA MILLER

Farm Electrification Bureau

Electrical load is a 2-word term that means a lot to some farmers, less to others and very little to many. It's important, though, and should be understood because of its close relationship to a farmer's wiring problems.

It means the amount of electricity used by your electric equipment. Electrical load is figured in watts. The number of watts which your equipment needs to operate efficiently, plus the distance between the location of that equipment and the main electrical distribution point, guides your electrician in installing the right size of wire and service equipment (fuse or circuit breaker) on the farmstead and in your buildings.

When you modernize your wiring, it is good business to get a load estimate larger than that needed to handle the electric equipment that you now have. If you're like most of us, you'll add some equipment later that you never thought of having, including electric lights which aren't yet on the market. A few spare circuits and a hunker-than-needed-wire wiring system will cost very little extra and will save you money later.

Now, let's look at the electrical load in a typical farm building—larger than average combination laying and brooder house. It may include lighting, time switches, brooders, ventilation equipment, automatic feeders and waterers, water warmers, egg cooler, egg candler and graders. This equipment could add up to 50,000 watts. If it does, it will take a 3-wire, 120/240 volt, 100 ampere service. When infra-red brooding is used, the service equipment might be as large as 200 ampere.

Farmers with flocks of around 400 birds may need only a controlled lighting system and some type of brooder. In such cases, service entrance equipment may be a minimum of 30 ampere, a 3-wire, 120/240 volt service, however, still is recommended.

Since ventilation equipment is so important to poultrymen, it is well to know that fans operated by motors of less than 1/2 horsepower may be wired on the convenience outlet circuit. If they are controlled from a central switch, however, a separate switch is needed for each fan. All equipment with motors of 1/2 horsepower and larger should be operated on 220 volts. Wire used in the building should not be smaller than No. 12.

BAND PARENTS TALK FINANCES

BEILLE GLADE — The Band Parents' Association met Tuesday evening and discussed plans to raise the funds needed to pay expenses for sending the band to compete in the state contest in St. Petersburg May 3-5.

John Munroe, bandmaster, said that about $250 would be needed to pay for transportation and that there is also a contest fee of $110, making a total of $360. Room expenses will be about $16 per student he said.

Plans were made for the band to give a concert on Apr. 22, with donations of 50 cents, to help raise these funds.

Glades U. of Fla. Alumni In County Observance

University of Florida Week in Palm Beach County will be observed Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, presidents of three county alumni clubs disclosed this week.

BPW NAMES COMMITTEE FOR NOMINATIONS

A slate of officer nominations for the 1956-57 year is to be presented at the next business meeting of the Pahokee Business & Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Irving Gordy, president, named Mrs. Alma W. Farrow chairman of the nominating committee, with Mrs. Johnnie Davis and Mrs. Jane Rieker as members.

Members voted to have an Everglades booklet as their project for biennial convention, pending a study of costs and production time. Mrs. Paul Sasser, Miss Jane Plumer, Mrs. Rieker, and Mrs. A. M. Okie were named on the booklet committee. Mrs. Gordy reported that the club owes only a remainder of $200 on its $1,000 Civic Center pledge. Mrs. Davis reported on the recent District 8 meeting at Ft. Pierce.

MRS. BAILEY TAKEN IN BY JAY-ETT GROUP

Mrs. Bill Bailey was received into membership in the Belle Glade Jay-C-Etts at their regular meeting last Tuesday. Announcement was made that the recent project to raise funds for the Belle Glade swimming pool was successful.

Plans were made for a potluck supper jointly with the Jay-Cees on Apr. 19.

Groups in Belle Glade, Pahokee, Delray Beach, Lake Worth, West Palm Beach, Riviera Beach, and Boynton Beach as well as schools in these communities will have an opportunity to hear the "University Story" during the three days. William B. Rhodes, president of the Belle Glade alumni club, will be in charge of local arrangements.

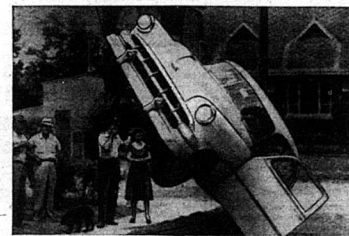

Featuring the three-day observance of University of Florida Week will be some 20 appearances of University officials in public schools, civic clubs, women's organizations and various societies and groups. University officials who will be in the county during the three days include President J. Wayne Reitz, Vice President Dr. John S. Allen, Alumni Executive Secretary Leland Hiatt, Dean of Men R. C. Beatty, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences Ralph Page, Head Football Coach Bob Woodruff, Assistant Football Coach Hank Folberg, College of Physical Education and Health Dean Dennis K. Stanley, Spurgeon Cherry of the College of Physical Education and Health, University News Bureau Editor Allen Skaggs, Student Body President Robert McClure, and Florida Blue Key President Richard Pettigrew.

Poppy Day sale of American Legion's Everglades Unit 20, was successful to the tune of $190.57 last Saturday. Flinders Field, memorialized by poets as where crosses grow "between the poppies, row on row", was reproduced by Mrs. Mary Riley of Everglades Unit. The display was located in a window at Dixie Cleaners. All proceeds from the poppy sale go for the rehabilitation of veterans and their families, and Mrs. Riley said success of the sale this year was due in large part to public realization of this fact. Eleven senior members, eight junior members, and sons of two of the unit members took part in the sale.

STILTED CONVERSATION—These two carnival performers make sure they have no "eavesdroppers" while relating some tall tales on a London street corner. The occasion was a festival in Soho, a famed quarter of London.

EASTER LILY BERMUDA STYLE—Susan Kelley, 19-month pretty youngster looks up to this giant Easter Lily. Susan would have to travel up 6 ft., 7 in., to reach the top of this stalk which grew wild in sunny Bermuda.

HIGH ALTITUDE PUSH—These two operators of International TD-24, 200-ton bulldozers, seem to be trying to out-push each other. Actually, they are helping to build a road on top of a mountain for the U. S. Marine Corps near Camp Pendleton. Over 65% of the 200,000 cu. yds. of material being moved is rock, but it is child's play to these two giants.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 8—Plan Now for Next Year's Tax

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Florida Society of Certified Public Accountants.)

The previous articles in this series were intended to help you in preparing your tax return for 1955. This article deals with your taxes for 1956 and beyond.

When the time comes to make out your tax return for 1956 it will be too late to take advantage of some possible tax savings. Here are some possibilities for reducing your tax which you can't do anything about after the end of the tax year:

1. If you are providing nearly half the support of someone who might qualify as a dependent, consider providing more than half so you will be entitled to a $500 exemption. The extra amount you contribute may be less than the tax saving.
2. Remember that unless a dependent is under 19 of a student, you will lose the exemption if his income is $400 or more. Be sure to check the income of everyone you expect to claim as a dependent.
3. If you are planning to be married, a wedding before midnight December 31, 1956, will give you the privilege of filing a joint return for 1956. This probably would result in substantial tax saving.
4. A baby born up to midnight December 31 qualifies as an exemption for the full year.
5. If your medical expenses are likely to be over 1% of your income this year and you expect them to be less next year, pay as many medical bills as possible before the end of the year, up to the maximum allowable deduction. If you borrow to do this, remember that you can also deduct the interest.
6. If your medical expenses are over the maximum deduction, perhaps you can defer part of the payment until after the end of the year.

7. Borrowing to pay your taxes can sometimes let you take the deduction a year earlier.
  8. If you sell your home at a profit, you can sell it for less than you do not have to pay a capital gains tax if you pay more for a new home within a year than the price you get for the old one.
  9. When investing money, remember that stock in a domestic corporation offers the possibility of dividend exclusion and credit.
  10. If you sell securities or other "capital assets" at a profit, it is usually better to wait until you have held them at least six months so that the profit will be taxed at the capital gains rate instead of as ordinary income.
  11. When buying bonds, consider not only the interest rate, but the fact that interest on state and municipal bonds is exempt from federal income tax.
- If any of these points is likely to make a substantial difference in your tax, it will probably pay you to discuss your problems with the Internal Revenue Service, or to seek professional tax advice. Anything you pay for assistance in preparing your tax return is deductible from your taxable income.
- But beware of any "tax expert" who claims he can cut your tax below the amount you really owe. It's a good idea to talk with someone who has had experience in dealing with the Revenue Service, just in case the government should raise some question about your return.
- (Final article of the series.)

HARBOR PLANS BEING READIED MEMBERS PAID

PAHOKEE — Formal plans for the biggest celebration in Pahokee's history — the May 19-20 dedication of Pahokee Harbor — were made at two meetings this week.

Initial estimates are that the two-day show possibly will attract crowds of 10,000 to 15,000 persons, surpassing the audience which attended the opening of the State Farmers Market in the '40s.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce met Monday night and endorsed all out promotion of the dedication.

On Tuesday, a special dedication committee presided over by Chamber President Dick Parrish discussed in detail how to plan a well-balanced program which would do justice to the historical dedication of the first harbor or breakwater on Lake Okechobee, the second largest fresh water lake in the U.S.

At the Chamber meeting, the board moved to adopt the 50-year lease from the city on the new Civic Building, and endorsed the second annual Chamber-sponsored fishing tournament to be held April 15-16. Mrs. E. J. Jones and Mrs. Gold heard the committee in charge of arrangements.

Pahokee Harbor Usage Discussed

PAHOKEE — Local vegetable interests were urged to think in terms of future employment of the new breakwater and harbor for export shipments, in refrigerated bottoms, of Glades-grown produce to the new free port, scheduled to be established in the Bahamas some time in 1959, by Capt. N. W. Sharpe, USNR-R, manager of the industrial development department of Port of Palm Beach.

"You may say for me to the Pahokee Lions Club and the people of Pahokee that the board of commissioners of the Port of Palm Beach will include in its budget this year funds to help retire the money borrowed from the state by Pahokee to build the breakwater. This will be done under the old Potter Co-operative Act," he quoted Port Manager L. R. Bishop.

Bishop's statement was made along with the sick-bed assurances of Chairman Billy B. Burns of his support of financial help for Pahokee in connection with the breakwater. Ralph Johnson introduced Sharpe in absence of Melvin Spooner, program chairman, at the Pahokee Lions Club luncheon Tuesday.

Sharpe forecast the attractive potentials for fresh vegetables from the Glades for off-shore consumers, shipped in barge or shallow draft bottoms from Pahokee through the Okechobee Waterway, St. Lucie Inlet and Intracoastal Waterway to Port of Palm Beach and thence by refrigerated vessels or barges some 60 miles due east of the port to Freeport, Bahamas.

He invited "Glades growers and their agents to utilize the appropriate offices and facilities of the port in their efforts to establish regular vegetable shipment schedules to the eastward islands" and predicted that "this Florida produce will be in great demand by consumer markets created as the result of opening of the new free port."
